

Newsletter — 14th November

This week in school...

Thank you all for your kind understanding today. As many of you are aware we have unfortunately been caught out with localised flooding in the past presenting difficulties accessing the school site. With today's horrendous forecast we decided it was better to give parents/carers the option to collect early in order to prevent any issues collecting later in the day. Fingers crossed you all managed to get home safely.

Although it has been a bit of a different day to the one originally planned, the children all arrived at school in their active wear ready for a day of Children in Need fun!. As you can see they all had a great time joining in with the Joe Wicks 'Challenge yourself to 25' workout, whilst raising important funds for this worthy cause.

Finally, we are pleased to announce that we will be doing something slightly different to celebrate Christmas this year. Thanks to the kind support of the CSA who have agreed to fund the full cost—The Suitcase Storytellers will be coming into school to take the children on their 'Christmas Adventure'. There will be 2 separate performances on the morning of Thursday 11th December for children in Nursery and Class 1, and then Class 2 and 3.

I hope you all have a great weekend despite this awful weather!

Coffee Afternoon

Thursday 20th November
2pm

Please join us on Thursday 20th November at 2pm for a tea/coffee.

There will be a presentation by Hollie Jones who works for the Educational Psychology team in Shropshire on neurodiversity. It will detail what we mean by the term 'neurodiversity' and will offer practical strategies for parents/carers that may be useful for supporting children who may be neurodivergent.

Please do let me know via the school office if you're able to attend (or simply turn up on the day). Everyone is welcome!
