

Update from Mr Davda

Don't forget it is the Harvest Festival this Wednesday 16th October at 9.30am—parents/carers are welcome to come along to St Peter's Church in Diddlebury to watch the children sing and give thanks. Children have been asked if possible to bring in harvest donations of tinned and dried goods which will be passed onto the Ludlow Food Bank after the service.

Thank you :)

We would also like to thank everyone for their understanding and cooperation with the closure of the school kitchen. It's great to see that children are still choosing to have dinners whilst we run the temporary service in Heather's absence.

Next week will be the week 1 menu which you can find attached. We appreciate your continued support of the school kitchen and again wish Heather a speedy recovery.

We would also like to remind everyone that the following week there is a PD Day on Friday 25th October.

I hope you all have a great weekend!

This Thursday the footballers went off to the year 5/6 Football Tournament in Ludlow. They all played extremely well, showing off some impressive skills. Messy Church be meeting again on – Thursday October 17th, when our theme will be Harvest and
Thursday December 5th, when we'll think about Advent and Christmas.

On both dates we'll be in Diddlebury Church and we'll start at the end of the day at Corvedale School, so at about 3:20pm – and we'll finish at 5pm. If your children go to school somewhere else and you can't get there for 3:20pm, just arrive when you can and we'll be delighted to see you.

If you haven't been to Messy Church before, don't worry – every session stands on its own and you're welcome whether you've been to all the sessions so far or none.

Messy Church is for families – so for children with a responsible adult (parents, grandparents, carers) – this can include children who are not yet old enough to be at school. We'll have crafts or other activities, then a time to think about a story with a song and a prayer, then we finish with a cooked meal for everyone to share.

There is no charge for Messy Church, although we will have a plate out if you would like to make a donation towards the costs of putting it on. You don't have to book in advance either, although it would really help if you could let Fr John know that you plan to come (revjbeesley@gmail.com) as that would give us a better idea of how many people we are cooking for. It would really help if you could let us know in advance if you are coming and have particular dietary needs.

If you have any questions feel free to get in touch with Fr John.

We hope to see you soon!
